

How to Catch a Reindeer

From the New York Times Bestselling Series
Alice Walstead &
Andy Elkerton

NORTH POLE

It's Christmas Eve! That's right, Santa's back!
He's here with the whole REINDEER team.
There are presents and stockings and candy canes,
and Christmas trees all agleam.

You might have sung my name before.
The tune starts with Dasher and Dancer!
Next in the song are Prancer and Vixen,
but who's next? Do you know the answer?

Bingo! That's right, I'm COMET herself!
I've been with the team from the start.
Christmas is my most favorite thing!
Each Christmas Eve fills my heart.

Now I've already seen the shelf with the elf and that blue truck loaded with trees.
I've even seen a green Santa so mean!
Tonight, I'll explore as I please.

I've heard that some kids are setting up traps to catch an elf or maybe Santa Claus.
If you think offering some carrots will work,
I promise I won't even pause.

I'll admit that this trap looks interesting.
It has lights and style and flair.
The thing is though, I'm not hungry enough.
There's no way I'm going in there!

Christmas decorations are awesome and bright!
Those candy canes twinkle and glow.

Though a maze looks like fun, I think that I'll pass, and I'll romp and play in the snow!

Why would I need night vision goggles?
My eyes do not need that support.
I think I'll stick with a snowball fight.
That last toss made Blitzen snort!

When did all those new reindeer get here?
I'm surprised, but I must be BRAVE!
Is that Santa sitting in a sleigh on the ground?
This is weird... And why won't he wave?

I'm chatting away, but it seems they're not listening.
It's like they don't know that it's me.

Oh wait, I get it! They're just plastic!
I'm embarrassed, and hope Prancer didn't see.

What in the holly jolly is that?
Those huge ornaments started moving!
They're rolling and rocking and bouncing around,
I could run, but I want to start grooving!

Whoa-ho-ho!! This is fun and better than a run.
Spin left, swing right! I'm dancing on air!
And a tree with lights to go ROCKIN' around?
Vixen, let's dance as a reindeer pair!

Hey friends, come on over! It's for Reindeergram.
Now let's say Merry Christmas and flash a smile!
This was a great stop but a few million to go
Christmas Eve must continue with style!

Back to the roof, Santa's back in the sleigh.
We shouldn't keep the big guy waiting!
In the blink of an eye, we'll take off in the sky.
"On now," Santa calls, "no hesitating!"

I had the most fun ever, to be clear.
I'll see you again—let's do this next year!

Merry Christmas
to all and to all a good night!

PDF Created By LazsRealm 2023
All Text and Images Copyrighted to the perspective Author and Artist.

Actual book may look different than shown here.

True Facts About Reindeer

- Reindeer have night vision.
- They live in the tundra, where they have friends like the arctic bunny.
- Reindeer love to eat moss and lichens, a type of plant that grows on trees and rocks.
- Santa's reindeer can fly, but all reindeer can run up to 50 mph.

How to Catch a Reindeer

From the New York Times Bestselling Series
Alice Walstead &
Andy Elkerton

NORTH POLE

 SCHOLASTIC